

Bookshelf® User Guide for Enterprise Library

IATA's Digital publications

are designed to run exclusively on the Bookshelf platform. The Bookshelf ecosystem is comprised of the Bookshelf family of eReader applications, and a backend named eVantage.

The Bookshelf applications are available online, on Android and iOS mobile devices as well as for Windows and MacOS desktops.

This document will guide you through the steps to:

- ✓ Creating a Bookshelf account online.
- ✓ Accessing a title in Bookshelf.
- ✓ Use the Bookshelf application.

Creating a Bookshelf Account Online

To access a title, you will need to create a Bookshelf account using the following steps:

- 01 Open any web browser and visit:
<https://digitalpublications.iata.org/>
- 02 Click on "Create an account".
- 03 Complete all fields in the registration form.

8+ characters, an uppercase letter, a lowercase letter, and a special character.

04 Read and agree to the Terms of Use, Privacy Policy and Cookie Policy and confirm your account by selecting Create.

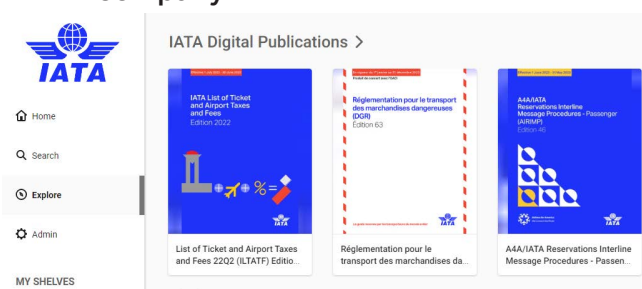

05 An email will be sent to you to validate your account. Simply click the "Confirm your email" link.

Accessing a Title through Explore

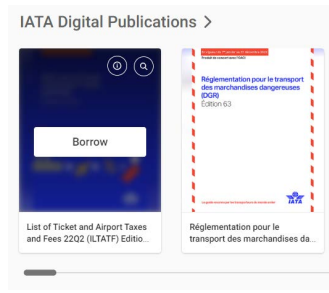

In order to gain access to your title follow these steps:

- 1 Sign into your account by visiting <https://digitalpublications.iata.org/> entering your email and password, then click "Sign In"
- 2 Once you are logged in, click on the Explore tab found in the top left hand corner
- 3 All purchased Enterprise titles will be displayed in a swim lane which is exclusively customized for your company
- 4 If you do not automatically see your publication, click the Help icon (bottom left hand corner) and select "Update Library"

Once your title is visible in the swim lane hover over the title and click "Borrow"

On the right-hand side of your screen a panel will appear with the number of available copies and duration. Click "Borrow" and the title is added to your "Library"

You will receive a confirmation message at the top right-hand corner. Click on "Open Book" and the publication will automatically open

Important notes to consider:

- Number of copies and loan period will depend on the type of contract your company has signed with IATA
- Publications can be returned before the end of the loan period
- Publications will automatically be returned after the loan period is up
- All preferences, notes, highlights, bookmarks and flashcards are saved to your profile therefore if the title is returned and re-borrowed all attributes will be retained

How to Navigate Bookshelf

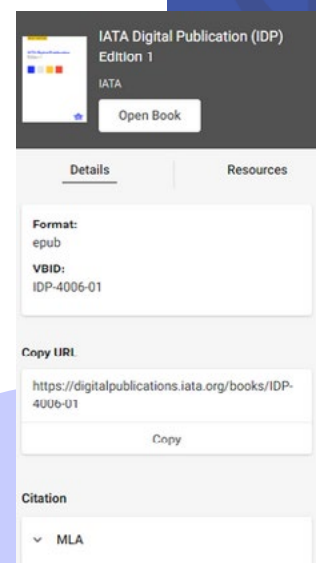

Within the library tab below the publication title, you may see the following three icons:

View Details Icon

Click on the View Details icon

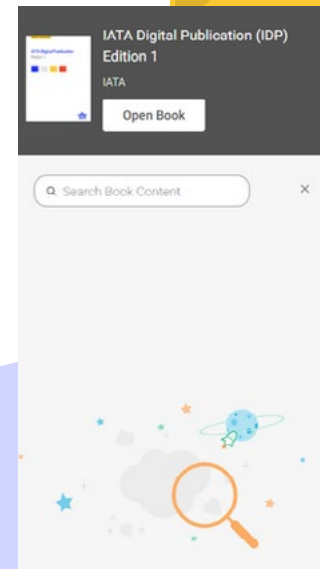

A pane will appear to the right of the page displaying details about the title:

Search Icon

Click on the Search icon to find something specific within the publication or to navigate to a specific section. A pane will appear to the right of the page. Enter any key word(s) in the free text field and press the Enter key on your keyboard.

Resources Icon

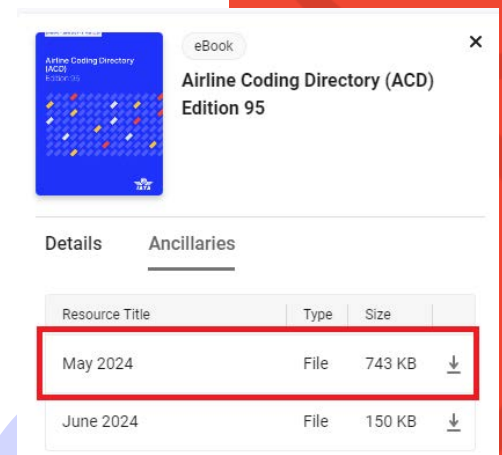

If your title includes resources, you will see a Resources icon below the publication title. Resources are only accessible when using Bookshelf online. All resources are downloadable, printable, and fillable. File formats include PDF, Word, XML, CSV, Excel, fillable PDFs, PowerPoint, etc.

Here are the steps to access your resources:

1. To be able to download ancillary files, the Book needs to be borrowed and open first. Then go to "My Library" and resource files can be downloaded.

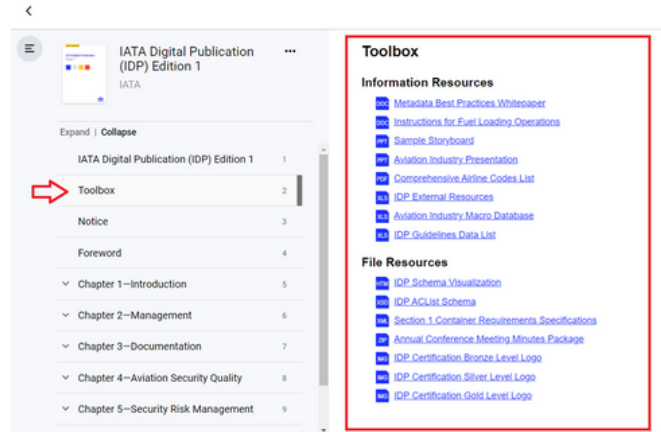

2. A panel will appear to the right of the page with all the resources allocated to the title. You can then download any file to your computer by clicking anywhere in the resource tile.

Toolbox Files

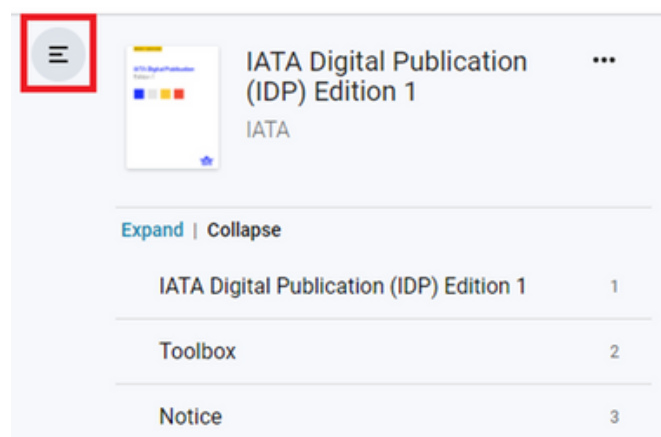

The purchased title may also include toolbox files. The “Toolbox” is directly integrated in the publication following the title name in the Table of Contents. Click on “Toolbox” and all the toolbox files associated to the title will appear to the right. Then click on any file name and the file will either be downloaded to your computer or open in a new browser tab.

Navigating your Publications

By clicking on the three lines at the top left-hand corner of the Table of Contents panel, you can display or hide the Table of Contents.

All publications include a Table of Contents panel on the left-hand side to assist with navigation. Use the Table of Contents panel to select a location in the book where you want to begin reading.

Navigation to specific pages or simply skipping to the next page is made easy through the “Go to Page” free text field and navigation arrows at the bottom of the page.

Reader Preferences

Important Note: IATA recommends to keep reader preferences to Publisher format for all titles.

Bookshelf provides several capabilities to view the title based on your preferences. Click the Reader Preferences icon to access your preferences.

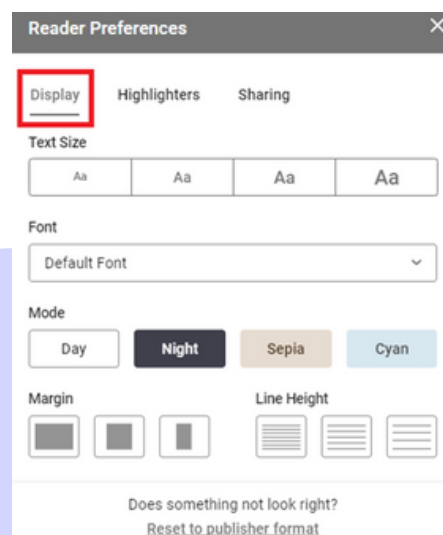

The Reader Preferences window includes three tabs:

1 Display

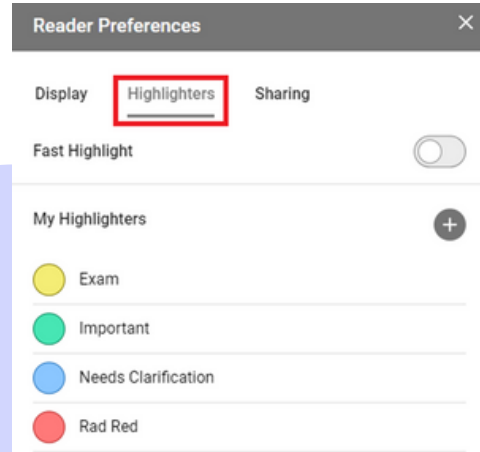

The Display tab allows you to change the text size, font, display mode, content margin and line height.

The reset Publisher format option is found at the bottom of the Reader Preferences window.

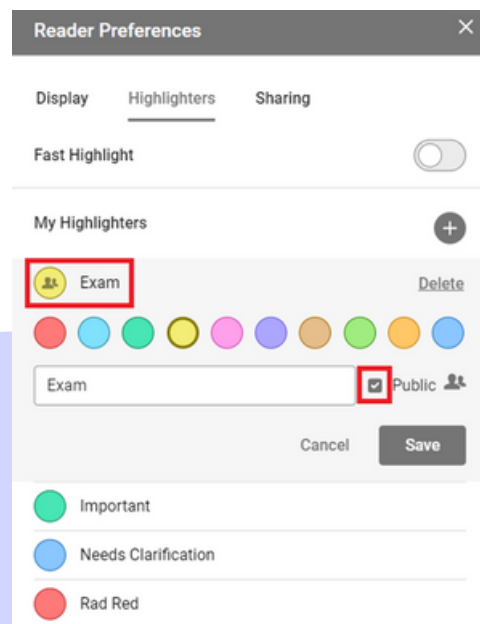

2 Highlighters

The Highlighters tab allows you to manage your highlighter preferences.

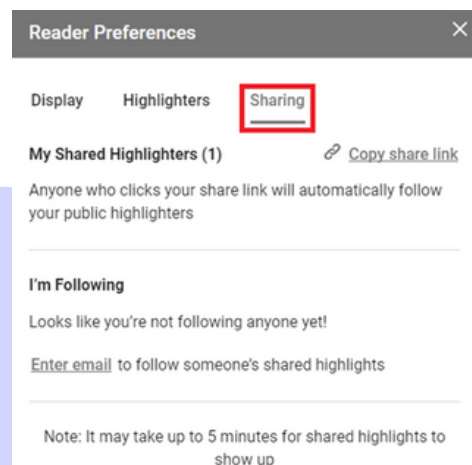

To share highlights and notes you will need to make them public. Click on each desired color highlight then check the public box.

Note: You must follow someone to see their highlights and notes (see Sharing tab).

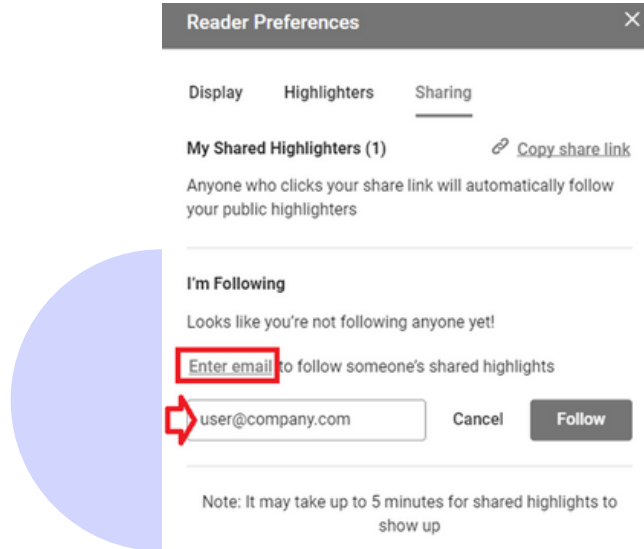

3 Sharing

The Sharing tab allows you to share a link with another user that has access to the same title.

3 Sharing

To see another user's highlights and notes you will need to follow them. Click on enter email, type in the correct email address, and click follow.

Bookmarks

In addition to using the Table of Contents pane to navigate to content in your publication, Bookshelf gives you the ability to bookmark specific pages for ease of reference at a later date.

The Bookmark Page icon is in the lower left-hand corner of the screen. Click on the icon to add a bookmark to that page.

Highlights & Notes, Bookmarks and Flashcards

Clicking on the Highlights & Notes, Bookmarks and Flashcards icon will open up a “Workbook” panel on the right-hand side of your screen. This feature allows you to manage and customise your highlights & notes, bookmarks, and flashcards. Workbook can be managed on any platform and will be synced across all platforms when you have an active Internet connection.

1 Highlights

Highlights is similar to highlighting in a physical book. Your publication, however, allows you to add or remove your highlights and add your own notes. Any highlights or notes you create will be saved to your Bookshelf account and follow you across devices. To create a highlight or note, select a section of text with your cursor and select from the drop-down menu. You can also look the text up in Wikipedia, create flashcards or read aloud.

Chapter 1 —Introduction

Security is not only the responsibility of top-level management or the Head of Security. Security involves everyone and a positive security culture and maintaining a secure environment. Positive reinforcement of correct security actions sends the message throughout the organization that security to be a priority.

The Security Management System (SeMS) is the element of corporate management responsibility that sets out a company's security policies and procedures as an integral part of its overall business. It is important to keep in mind, however, that each entity must implement the system that suits its situation—there is no “one-size-fits-all” system.

SeMS is a business-like approach to security. As with any business plan, goals are set and levels of authority are established. Ultimately, the system becomes part of the organization and becomes part of its culture.

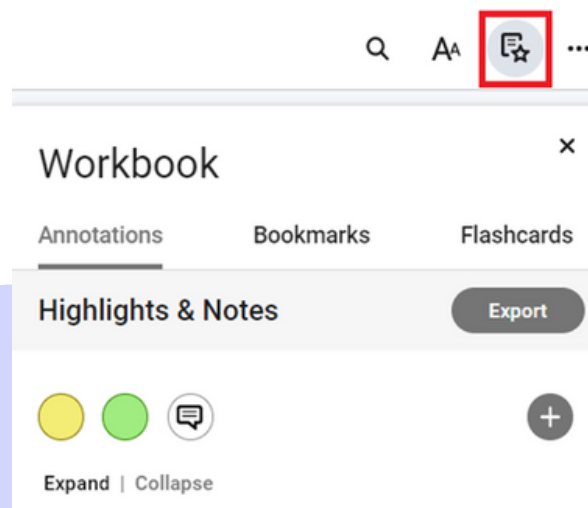

SeMS is not necessarily directly related to compliance with the National Civil Aviation Security Program (NCASP). SeMS is designed to be an all-encompassing security process that promotes corporate security awareness. It is not meant, however, to replace the NCASP.

SeMS, when implemented throughout the organization and verifying compliance through quality assurance, can be a significant improvement. Specific security practices, training and audit functions of a SeMS should be built to ensure

SeMS is to be implemented by airlines through the IATA Operational Safety Audit (IOSA) is to serve as a guideline. A standardized structure, such as SeMS, provides better and more uniform security standards than traditional reactive and prescriptive procedures. An effective and focused risk assessment should contribute to making security practices proactive, rather than
