About Baku

Azerbaijan currency

The official currency is the Azerbaijan manat (AZN). To change money and get Manats, you can use the currency exchange kiosks available in both Terminal 1 and 2 at Baku international Airport.

There are also ATMs that provide 24 hours customer service including withdrawing cash service at any time available in the airport. Card payments are accepted at most shops and restaurants.

Power outlets

In Azerbaijan, power plugs and sockets (outlets) of type C and F are used. The standard voltage is 220 V at a frequency of 50 Hz.

The weather

In Azerbaijan, May marks the beginning of warmer weather as spring fully arrives. The temperatures in May typically range from 18°C to 25°C across the country. It's generally a pleasant time of year, with blooming flowers and a lot of sunshine. More weather information can be found here.
