

Chart of the Week

2 June 2023

A snapshot of aviation in Türkiye

450,000 kg of humanitarian relief carried by 19 airlines to Türkiye following the Earthquake in February 2023

117%

Türkiye international air connectivity in March 2023 is 117% of its pre-crisis level

1M jobs supported by aviation

7th largest international air passenger market

US$ 44.8B

contribution of aviation to Türkiye's GDP annually

59.6% growth in air travel

59,6% year on year growth in air travel to/from Türkiye in 2022

273 international destinations

are available to passengers flying from Türkiye

95.6M passengers in 2022

started or finished their air travel journey in Türkiye

132 airlines operated scheduled flights to/from Türkiye in 2022

231M passengers in 2040

are expected to start or finish their air travel journey in Türkiye

- Ahead of IATA's 79th AGM in Istanbul today's chart provides a snapshot of aviation in Türkiye.
- For those participating in next week's event, we wish you all safe travel and a useful and productive meeting. For those unable to attend you can keep up to date by following #IATAAGM on Twitter.

Source: IATA, OAG, and Oxford Economics